CHARLES L. GODFREY

Charles L. Godfrey was born in Virginia, July 5, 1844 and died June 24 of this month at the age of 72 years. When a boy he moved with his parents to Defiance county, Ohio, and there enlisted in Company E, 21 Regiment of Ohio Volunteers. In 1866 following his return from the war he came to Michigan. He was married to Miss Alvira Nevins shortly after coming to this state. Two daughters and four sons survive him. The funeral services were in charge of Rev. A. B. Bowman of the United Brethren church. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Weddings this Week

Mills-Wyatt

The wedding of Miss Hattie Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Mills, to Mr. Edward H. Wyatt of Rudyard was very beautifully celebrated at high noon Saturday at her home on North Gratiot avenue, Dr. W. H. Mason officiating. Miss Edith Butler of Cedar Springs was the maid of honor while Mr. Edward Bahlke of this city attended Mr. Wyatt.

The living room of the home was prettily decorated with ferns, clusters of white peonies and syringa tied with satin ribbon. The ceremony was solemnized before a bank of ferns and white peonies. The dining room where the luncheon was served, following the wedding service, had white satin ribbons running from the corners of the room and the table to a large white wedding bell hung from the center of the ceiling. Large bouquets of white peonies completed the appointments of the room.

Miss Mills' bridal gown was a very pretty creation of Gorette crepe trimmed with lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The maid of honor wore pale green crepe de chene, her flowers being pink roses. Before the ceremony Mrs. Nicholas DeKruyter, sister of the groom, sang, "Oh, Perfect Love." Miss Merle Kenyon, cousin of the bride, sang, "All Joy Be Thine" following the wedding service.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this city, Miss Mills having graduated from the local high school and with the class of 1912 of Alma college, while Mr. Wyatt attended college here for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt left for Detroit and Cleveland Saturday evening where they will remain several days after which they will take the boat for their home at Rudyard, near Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. Wyatt is manager of a large estate near Rudyard.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hendrichs, Mrs. Sarah Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kenyon and daughter, Merle, and Miss Helen Wood all of Ithaca, Mrs. Lane of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hammond, Miss Anna Wyatt and Robert Wyatt of Rudyard, Mr. and Mrs. John Wyatt of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dow of Boyne City.

Snook-Robinson

The wedding of Miss Varnum Snook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Snook, to Mr. John Robinson of Alma was celebrated at high noon Saturday, June twenty-fourth, at the home of the bride's parents at Vesta-burg, the rector of St. John's church, Rev. J. Frank Jackson, officiating.

Miss Snook wore a becoming suit of midnight blue taffeta. The ceremony was performed under an arch of ferns and flowers, the room being beautifully adorned with a wealth of pink and white peonies. The color scheme in the dining room was green and white. A buffet lunch was served after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left during the afternoon for an eastern trip and will be home after July twenty-fourth at 603 W. Center St. of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson, parents of the groom, attended the wedding.

Horton-Kaufman

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Horton in Arcadia township Sunday afternoon when their daughter, Edith, was united in marriage to Mr. Lester G. Kaufman of Breckenridge. Mr. G. D. Kaufman, father of the groom, officiated at the ceremony. Miss Gertrude Horton and Mr. Shirley L. Kaufman attended the bride and groom. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk and carried a large bouquet of cream roses. Following the nuptials, a two course luncheon was served. Only the relatives and immediate friends attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman will reside on the farm of the groom's father for the present.

Fuller-Schiff

Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Gus Quick on Pine Avenue was the place of a quiet wedding, the bride being Mrs. Jennie Fuller and the groom, Mr. William Schiff of Seville township. Dr. W. H. Mason of the first Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. Both the bride and the groom are well known in the city and country.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Schiff left by automobile for a trip through the state. They will reside in Seville township where Mr. Schiff has a large farm.

Grimm-Stauffer

A very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. W. H. Mason on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. Samuel Fletcher, 214 West End Street, when Miss Hilda Grimm of Ironwood was married to Mr. James Dale Stauffer. Miss Marie Hallen-bagen and Mr. Ray Tomlin attended the contracting parties. The wedding was very quiet owing to the recent death of the bride's father.

AUTO COLLISION

Machine Driver Fails to Sound Warning, Causing Accident

What might have been a serious accident was barely averted Sunday evening when an automobile collided with a carriage at the corner of West Superior street and Wright avenue. According to those who witnessed the accident the driver of the machine gave no warning that he wished to pass. The carriage turned north at Wright avenue just as the automobile turned to go by and struck broad side demolishing the thills and jarring the occupants, although not injuring them. The names of the parties were not reported. After the collision it is stated the driver of the automobile hastened on his way without lending assistance.

BIG VICTORY OF LOCAL DEALERS

How One Iowa Town Checked Catalogue Houses.

BEGAN BY REFUSING CREDIT

Old Lady, Daughter About to Be Married, Couldn't Buy Wedding Present. Others Who Patronized Mail Order Business Unable to Find Market For Wares.

[Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.] It is not victory that makes the joy of noble hearts, but the combat. The greater the obstacle the more glory in overcoming it, and difficulties are but the mounds of honor to set off the virtue. The effects of competition are wonderful. There are men who rise refreshed on hearing of a threat—men to whom a crisis which intimidates and paralyzes the majority comes graceful and beloved as a bride. Competition induces the enthusiast and drives him on to action.

The Making of Men.

It is not ease, but effort; not facility, but difficulty, that makes men. There is perhaps no station in life in which difficulties have not been encountered and overcome before any decided measure of success was achieved.

Recognizing the retail catalogue house as a worthy foe, a competitor, the local retail merchant, in preparing for battle must take an inventory of his many advantages over the mail order house.

First and foremost, he is always working among friends and acquaintances. The mail order house must always work as a stranger.

Did any one ever suggest to him before that perhaps he neglected or overlooked many things important to business success?

An Iowa Cure For Bad Habit.

I am not an adept at suggestions, so will refrain from making any, but will tell of a plan that worked out successfully in an Iowa town.

The merchants of that town were being imposed upon by mail order buyers and organized for their own protection and determined to cancel all favors and credit heretofore extended to those offending citizens.

It developed that the first applicant was a lady who had recently purchased a sewing machine from a catalogue house. Her daughter was about to be married, and she wished to present her with a parlor set as a present and, finding her husband short of ready money, asked credit from the local dealer.

The Dealer Politely Declined.

The dealer politely declined, advising that no doubt the mail order house of Chicago from which she purchased her sewing machine would be most happy to extend to her the desired credit.

The good lady, somewhat perturbed, hurried over to the other furniture dealer. Here she met with the same suggestion. "I am sure the mail order house will grant you all the time you ask," said the merchant.

The lady knew different, though, for she had read the catalogue and remembered it said "Cash in advance."

Mail Order House Doesn't Buy Eggs.

When Mrs. Farmer, who had offended, came to town with butter and eggs the grocer said: "Really, Mrs. Farmer, the butter is fine, and the eggs are fresh, but I am not needing any today."

I would suggest, though, that you send them to a Chicago mail order house. It will doubtless be delighted to receive them in exchange for another box of groceries such as you purchased from it last week."

Mrs. Farmer straightened herself up, gave the merchant a look which meant that there were more groceries in town and started out to find them.

She did, and they gave her the same advice she received at the first place.

The Turn About Game.

Farmer Independent drove a load of corn to town and was offered about 5 cents less than the market price. He protested. The grain man suggested that maybe the mail order house of Chicago would be glad to have the corn at the market price.

The implement man referred the man with the secondhand machine to a Chicago catalogue house, remarking sarcastically that it made a specialty of taking old goods in trade.
